

Philosophy

---

The Doctoral Philosophy Program in Social Development Administration (DPSD) is an interdisciplinary program providing a foundation of its graduates to become scholars, researchers, analysts, policy makers, and administrators in the field of social development administration, as well as, to create a frontier of body of knowledge in social development and strategic administration.